25X1A2g

Reports prepared by [REDACTED] appear to be delayed in getting published because no typist is assigned to this group. The TO of this group is reported to have been increased to 44 analysts, but no slot has been provided for a typist. With the increased number of analysts, the number of reports prepared by [REDACTED] will increase, but the lack of a typist will continue to delay the publication of reports.
